Night Of The Living Turkeys

Night of the living turkeys was fun to write.Chuck and Cat (Catherine Moore) are undeveloped characters in the Federal Witch universe. Their personalities and character traits are slowly coming to light.There are six more books to go in the series and I have much to share about the characters. I think they make a good team together.

Poulters begin roosting from about 14-28 days old, depending on the sub-species, location and temperature. Turkeys may use traditional roost sites night after night but they generally use different sites and move from tree to tree. Turkeys usually select the largest trees available and roost as high in them as they can comfortably perch.
